MEDIA ADVISORY
CIVIC MEETING - HIGH-RISE FIRE TRAINING

The Milwaukee Fire Department is meeting with civic leaders and citizens to explain what will be happening at the high-rise fire training taking place at 1275 North 17th Street.

The fire department is attempting to address the public 's concerns before the live fire evolutions start. The live fires are planned twice a day for a three-week period starting May 1, 2006. Cooperation between the department, civic leaders, and the citizens of Milwaukee is of extreme importance.

The meeting will be held on April 20, 2006, at 6:00 pm in the south tower of the complex 's meeting room, at 1275 North 17th Street. Any citizen with concerns is welcome to attend. The media is also welcome, to understand what will be occurring during the live fire evolutions.

Any questions can be directed to Captain Dan Berendt, Bureau of Instruction and Training, at (414) 286-8973.
